

Dear Esteemed Members of the European Society of Gynecological Oncology,

I am writing to express my strong interest in joining the council of the European Society of Gynecological Oncology. As a devoted advocate for advancing women's health and an active participant in the field of gynecology oncology, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute my expertise to further the society's objectives, while proudly representing Spain, a nation with a robust and influential membership within our esteemed organization.

Through my clinical work, research endeavors, and dedication to professional growth, I have gained a deep understanding of the challenges and opportunities within this dynamic field. Joining the council of the European Society of Gynecological Oncology would allow me to collaborate with fellow experts and contribute to initiatives that shape the future of women's health across Europe.

Spain's notable presence in ESGO serves as a testament to the country's dedication to advancing medical knowledge and care. As a representative from Spain, I am honored to be part of a community that is committed to excellence and driven to elevate the standards of gynecological oncology practice and research.

My experience in managing gynecological cancers, coupled with my involvement in cutting-edge research projects, equips me with insights that can make a meaningful contribution to the society's mission. I am excited about the possibility of collaborating on research endeavors, sharing insights, and fostering multidisciplinary collaboration to improve patient outcomes and drive innovation.

I am deeply inspired by the society's emphasis on education and knowledge exchange. Having organized educational workshops and seminars, I have witnessed firsthand the transformative impact of disseminating knowledge and fostering a culture of continuous learning. As a council member, I am committed to enhancing the society's educational initiatives and promoting cross-border collaboration that enhances the skills and expertise of professionals across member countries.

In conclusion, I am thrilled about the potential to serve as a council member of the European Society of Gynecological Oncology.

Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,

Álvaro Tejerizo García MD, Ph.D.
